

Jury Statement
Dutch Short

For the first part of this statement I am aware that I have to build the suspense and give no clue as to the potential winner. All the nominees will be tense and nervous and have conflicting emotions. Is it me? Was my film good enough? Who are these jurors who deem to suppose they are qualified enough to make such a potentially life changing decision with a possible long term psychological impact.

Anyhoo enough rambling:

The winner of the Dutch Shorts was a film that (in the opinion the expert, amazing and beautiful jury) was fun, hand crafted, gloopy, visceraly soft and perfectly short. It's - drum roll please
