DEAR FRIENDS

Dear Friends,

With proud hearts we welcome you to the 10th-anniversary edition of the KLIK Amsterdam Animation Festival.

Over the last decade, KLIK has grown into a force of animation. Back in 2007, our launch was an intimate gathering in an independent cinema with just 250 guests, most of whom were animation students. This year, we expect over 8,000 national and international visitors for six full days of animation madness at EYE.

The theme for 2017 is “Never Grow Up”, because there is a Peter Pan in all of us and we’re refusing to grow up. So we’ll be showing animated films that question and challenge notions of age, films that cater to your inner child – and your inner adult.

The program this year is going to be amazing. Expect the best animated shorts from all over the world, stunning feature films, interactive talks with legends of animation, and of course a blowout birthday bash.

So sit back, relax, and get animated!

Bram Kranendonk
Managing Director - KLIK

FESTIVAL BASICS

ALL PROGRAMS ARE IN ENGLISH

Unless specifically stated otherwise. Films in other languages will have English subtitles.

HELP ME!

Lost, worried, scared, or confused? Never fear, you can ask our friendly volunteers behind the KLIK desk at the EYE entrance absolutely anything.

SHORT FILM COMPILATIONS

We've grouped animated shorts in kick-ass programs. That's why you can't get a ticket for individual short films; instead, enjoy our carefully crafted compilation screenings.

FOOD & DRINK

No need to get hangry! You can get tasty goodies and refreshing drinks in EYE or other places in the area.

VIDEO LIBRARY

Are you a programmer, curator, or sales agent? Then feel free to browse our full video library in the VR room.

FESTIVAL TRAILER

This year's festival trailer is an amazing trip down memory lane. In honor of our theme, Never Grow Up, KLOMP! Animation created a nostalgic homage to shows and films many of us grew up with and still have an impact on our lives, from Steamboat Willie to Looney Tunes, Pokémon, Transformers, Dragon Ball Z, The Lion King, and plenty of other classics. Main character

Klikbert the klikker runs through different styles and settings to finally make it to the KLIK Amsterdam Animation Festival. Pay close attention to see if you can spot all the tributes. The trailer is the result of collaboration between KLOMP! Animation, Colorbleed, Studio Plumeau, Elephant Ears, Kasper Werther, Hilde Buitter, Kabo Lam, and many others.

A DECADE OF KLIK

KLIK has always been about animation and fun, and over the past ten years we've had plenty of both. Having reached this milestone, we wanted to look back at KLIK's major highlights and hijinks.

2007 – The very first edition was actually called KLIT. It was a small, one-day affair with 250 guests who all got to feast on free cotton candy.

2008 – The festival changed its name to KLIK and sprawled out over three days.

2009 – KLIK had its first theme, or rather two: "Politics and Erotica." We also introduced our beloved klikker and hosted our first international tour to Russia.

2010 – KLIK grew to five days and hosted its first research symposium on the visualization of science.

2011 – In preparation of our big move to EYE, the festival organized a one-day KLIK special focused on the Dutch industry.

2012 – We had our grand debut at Eye. Adventure Time-creator Nate Cash was one of our special guests, and an amazing Cardboard Animation Workshop ended in the legendary Cardboard Robot Dance-Off.

2013 – KLIK introduced the World Domination Award for Dutch animators on the path to global success, and Erik-Jan de Boer was the first recipient.

2014 – "Boys, Girls & Beyond" was the gender-bending theme, and guests included Pixar's Michael B. Johnson and Disney's Dawn Ernster and Josh Staub. KLIK hosted an industry tour to LA, San Francisco, and Portland.

2015 – Special guests included Tomm Moore of Cartoon Saloon and stop-motion artist and Oscar-winning director PES.

2016 – Last year, the festival welcomed over 14,000 visitors. Highlights included our first big art exhibit and Michael Dudok de Wit being awarded the World Domination Award.

CATCH OF THE YEAR

Let's dig right into the main course: our mouthwatering selection of the newest animated short films from all over the world.

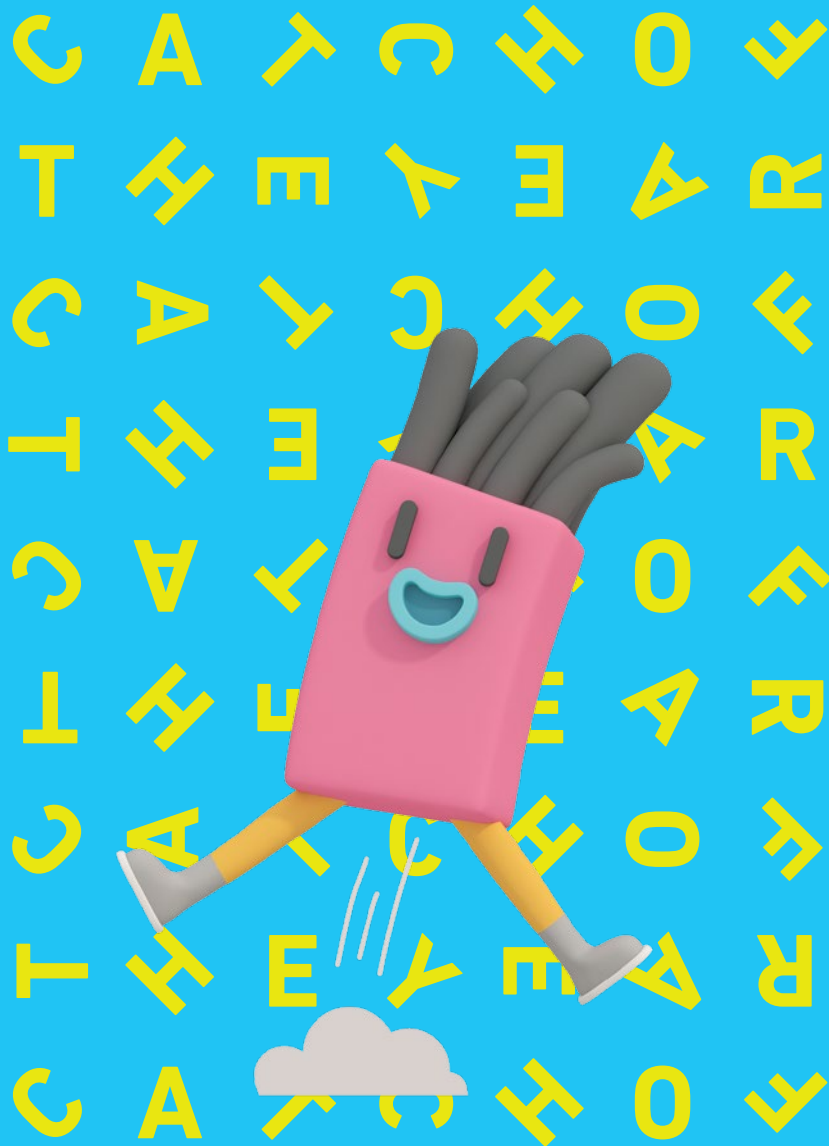

After watching over 1,900 films, we hand-picked only the freshest and finest animated shorts, compiling a series of unforgettable screenings for you. With work from professionals and students side by side, and a selection of special compilations, there's something to satisfy every craving.

Each of these films will take part in our yearly competition and have a shot at winning a KLIK award, a.k.a. a Frankie. Read all about the Frankies on page 44.

Our Catch of the Year program includes:

- Compilations of the best Animated Shorts
- Animated Documentaries that tell real-life stories
- Political Animated Shorts about today's most pressing issues
- Short films from Emerging Animation Nations
- Dutch Panorama, showing the best homegrown talent
- Animated Music Videos
- Funny & Trippy Toons with head-scratching, hilarious films
- Animation for Art Lovers
- Commissioned pieces in Animation for Hire
- Virtual Reality Showcase of animated VR creations

Want to get involved? Help select the winner of the KLIK Amsterdam Audience Award by choosing your favorite after each screening. You have the power. Use it.

CONTINUOUS, EYE VR ROOM

Just imagine you're on a boat in the middle of the ocean. No, a plane in midair. Wait, make that a camel in the middle of the desert. Thanks to virtual reality, you can be anywhere.

In our VR Room, you'll get the chance to explore new worlds, interact with characters, and even change the course of events in this relatively new form of animated storytelling.

Sign up for one (or more!) slots now, and make sure to try out all the different goggles to explore the best animated VR creations that made this year's selection (images below), and other animated highlights.

You're simply the best. At least we think so, which is why you also deserve the best. Best of KLIK 2017 takes the very best animated shorts from this year's festival, as selected by both jury and the audience. We don't know which films these will be yet, but we can guarantee that they'll be nothing but the grandest and the greatest animated shorts.

KLIK AWARDS: THE FRANKIES

Who will go for the gold? This year, we got 1,975 entries representing 80 countries, from Iceland to India, but only a chosen few will convince our three independent juries of (inter)national experts and become KLIK champions.

The winners can expect everlasting glory and (minor) riches to invest in future films. During our Awards Night on Saturday, champions will take home their very own coveted Frankie – a sculpture of our mascot and a symbol of ultimate animation achievement. Our zoetrope (think: animation carousel) of Frankies is on display right here in EYE. So with that, may the odds be ever in your favor!

KLIK Award for:

- Best Animated Short
- Best Animated Student Short, powered by Cartoon Network
- Best Commissioned Animation
- Best Animated Music Video, powered by Xite
- Best Animated Documentary
- Best Animated Virtual Reality
- Best Animation for Art Lovers
- Best Funny & Trippy Toon
- Best Political Animated Short
- Best Animated Short from an Emerging Animation Nation

ARTISTS IN FOCUS

Animation is art, plain and simple. That's why we want to give you some time to really get to know the artists. Join us for a special series of talks with today's animation artisans.

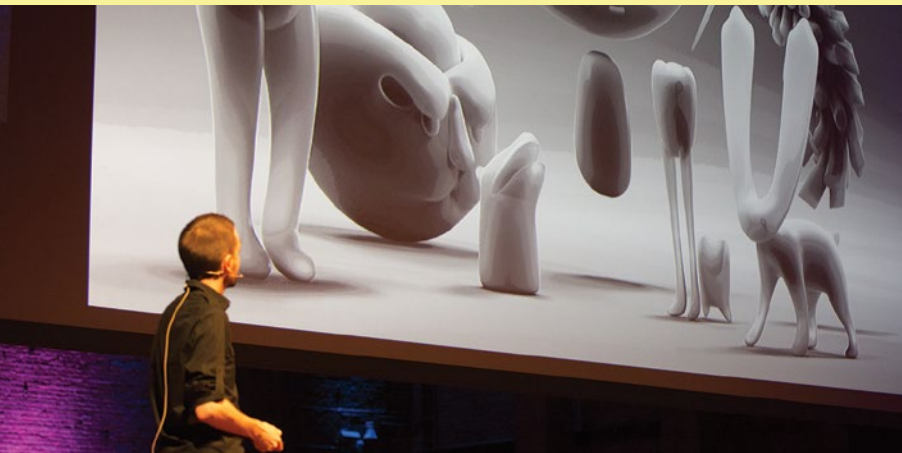

They'll walk you through their creative process, and you get to pick every speaker's brain in an extensive Q&A afterwards. So grab your seats and go 1-on-1 with the people behind some of the greatest animation out there, including Daron Nefcy, creator of Disney's Star vs. the Forces of Evil, and Loving Vincent directors Dorota Kobiela and Hugh Welchman.

And who knows, the sparks thrown by our roster of animation geniuses might be just the thing you need to fire up your own creative spirit.

SAT 21 OCT, 11:45, EYE 1

This is your chance to get into the minds of some of the most fascinating animators in the biz. On 'Inspiration Friday' KLIK is teaming up with Playgrounds Festival, which celebrates and showcases the moving image.

We've got two sessions with (inter)national names in animation. This includes panel discussions between the different speakers and plenty of room for Q&As with the audience.

Artists like Moth Collective, Studio MDHR's Jake Clark, Edwin Rhemrev & Wouter Tulp, and Bandits Collective will be taking the stage.

Taking a popular book by Roald Dahl with classic illustrations by Quentin Blake and turning that into a brilliant two-part animated movie is no easy feat. But that is exactly what director Jakob Schuh and co-director Bin-Han To managed to do.

The two will host a special session where they will explain how they adapted the text of the much loved children's book Revolting Rhymes into a script for two unique 30-minute films. The films of course pay tribute to the book's twisted take on classic tales while managing to create a fantastical story and world all of its own.

THE ART OF LOVING VINCENT DOROTA KOBIELA & HUGH WELCHMAN 90 MIN

FRI 20 OCT, 18:45 , EYE 1

Dorota Kobiela and Hugh Welchman are a writer-director team who have spent the last seven years working on something pretty extraordinary: the world's first fully painted feature film.

Loving Vincent is a murder mystery that tries to unravel the strange last days before Vincent van Gogh's death in 1890. Every one of its 65,000 frames is also entirely hand-painted in the Dutch painter's bold and vibrant style.

Co-director Dorota is a student of both painting and film whose vision was the driving force behind this one-of-a-kind project, so make sure to ask her and Oscar-winning partner Hugh everything you want to know about the film, the story, or the inspiration behind it.

THE ART OF DISNEY'S STAR VS. THE FORCES OF EVIL DARON NEFCY 90 MIN

SAT 21 OCT, 15:30, EYE 1

It's not always rainbows and butterflies, except of course if you're Star Butterfly, the magical teen princess who loves kicking ass and adores all things cute. The brains behind Star Butterfly and the hit Disney TV series Star vs. the Forces of Evil will be on hand at KLIK this year for a special presentation and Q&A.

Creator and executive producer Daron Nefcy will cover a little of everything: from ideas and storyboards, to design, sound, and of course animation. Daron herself is a rising animation star and only the second woman ever to create an animated series for Disney Television Animation.

She'll also answer questions on (almost) anything, be it monsters or Mewni. So fangirls and boys, don't be afraid to get all geeky!

NEVER GROW UP

The theme of this year's festival is "Never Grow Up", because we hope you don't. We want you to laugh out loud, be silly, cry if you feel like it, and stay curious forever.

This means exploring the expectations and experiences that come with age, for instance in the wonderfully childlike Brazilian feature Boy and the World and the hilarious and touching Spanish film, Wrinkles, about seniors in a retirement home.

If you want something short but sweet, then check out our special compilation programs about everything from rejecting adult apprehensions in favor of living your dreams in YOLO, to the trials and tribulations of reaching maturity in Growing Pains.

So forget those pesky numbers in your passport about how old you are and join us on this journey through the ages.

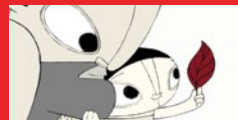

THE KIDS ARE ALRIGHT ^{75 MIN}

TUE 17 OCT, 21:15, EYE 2

FRI 20 OCT, 20:30, EYE 2

Kids are people too, with their own imaginations, dreams, and ideas about the world. They use these unique points of view to tackle problems big and small: from the death of a parent or sibling, to a lost teddy or a board game gone wrong.

This compilation of animated shorts asks you to look through the eyes of a child, with films like Anita Killi's cutout animation Angry Man, dealing with domestic abuse, and Angela Steffen's Lebensader, about a girl who discovers a whole world inside a leaf. Join us on this journey through the world of the young.

WED 18 OCT, 18:45, EYE 1

A charming and polite prison movie, that's the best way we can describe this black-hearted comedy. Wrinkles is a Spanish film about overlooked seniors locked away behind the iron gates of a retirement home.

Directed by Ignacio Ferreras and based on a graphic novel by Paco Roca, the story follows Emilio, a retired bank manager whose son puts him in a care home when he starts to become too forgetful. Once there, Emilio is befriended by the somewhat dodgy Miguel, who shows him how to survive and make friends in his new surroundings.

Though the film paints a desolate picture of retirement homes, we know that its equally lovable and quirky characters will make you laugh (and cry).

FRI 20 OCT, 22:45, EYE 1

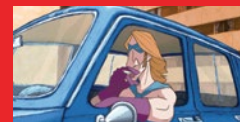

SAT 21 OCT, 22:45, EYE 2

It might be the most overused acronym in pop culture, but #YouOnlyLiveOnce remains a powerful phrase, especially to rally those of us who have grown more apprehensive with age. From crazy evenings on the town in the classic Girls Night Out to the horrors of letting your inner self run free in Manoman, this program looks at those who refuse to grow up, and instead live for the here and now. SAT 21 OCT, 21:00, EYE 2

Congrats, you're a grownup now! Or so you thought. Growing up is something each of us experiences in our own way, and some of us never really do. But what actually changes when you become a so-called 'grown-up'? Is it a rite of passage that you go through? Or just new responsibilities and challenges you never asked for?

This compilation of short films is made up of animated gems examining this journey towards adulthood. Highlights include Teenage Diary Markoese Hamer, in which thirtysomethings revisit their teenage diaries, and The Runt, the Andreas Hykade classic about a beastly ritual.

BOY AND THE WORLD ^{90 MIN}

SAT 21 OCT, 19:00, EYE 2

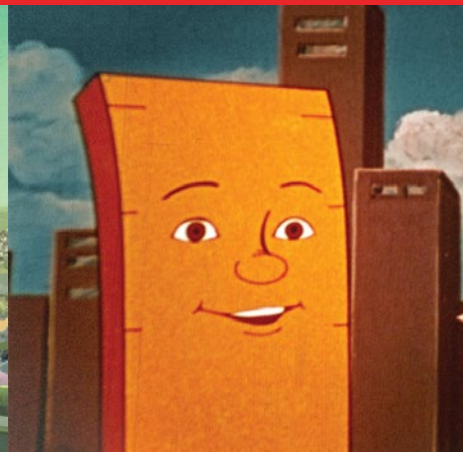

This beautiful Brazilian film will blow you away. Meet Cuca, a young boy from a cozy village who goes on a quest to reunite his family after his father leaves to find work in the city.

Alê Abreu's Oscar-nominated gem is an explosion of music and color, showing the wonders and struggles of the modern world through the eyes of a small child.

The film was created using a mix of drawing, painting, and digital animation. What starts off with relatively simple visuals takes on greater complexity as Cuca's small world expands from farm animals and endless green fields, to favelas and neon signs. Through it all, the film's compelling, melancholy story ties everything together.

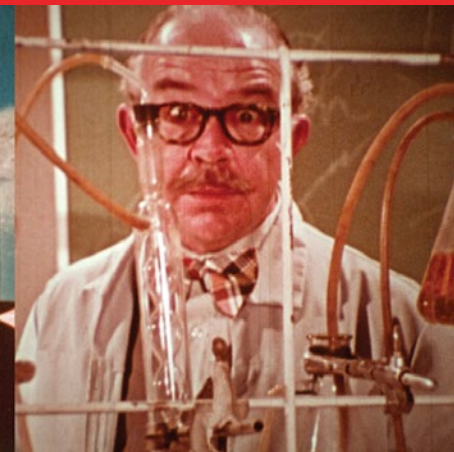

A IS FOR ANIMATION, M IS FOR MISEDUCATION ^{75 MIN}

SAT 21 OCT, 13:30, EYE 2

Adults always think they know what's best for those poor, helpless children, but sometimes they get it wrong.

Straight from his vintage film vault, collector Roloff de Jeu, presents short films that were meant to educate children, but probably confused or shocked the crap out of them. Highlights include the cute but somewhat patronizing and sexist Story of Menstruation by Disney (1946) for young adults, and the obscure Think Metric! (1974).

All will be shown on 16mm for that full vintage glory.

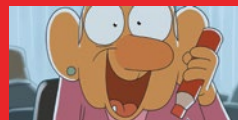

OLD IS THE NEW YOUNG ^{75 MIN}

SAT 21 OCT, 17:15, EYE 2

SUN 22 OCT, 19:45, EYE 2

What do you mean old? Life doesn't stop after 67. You're way too young to retire and wither away while you work on some puny garden.

In this program of short films, we'll be looking at people in the later seasons of their lives who stop letting their age dictate their choices, and start making unique ones of their own. From a Kung Fu grandma in What a Peaceful Day to an elderly couple literally living the high life in At the Ends of the Earth, meet the stubborn seniors who've decided they're ready for new adventures.

KLIK SPECIALS

These KLIK Specials are an anima-palooza of brand-new and classic animation highlights.

We've got special screenings of amazing full length feature films, including Loving Vincent, Tehran Taboo, Zombillenium, and In This Corner of the World. Make sure to also check out Wrinkles and Boy and the World in our theme program Never Grow Up.

For Cartoon Network fans we've got double the fun, with two specials on the crazily awesome Adventure Time. If you're looking for more classic fairy tales (with a twist!), then check out Revolting Rhymes.

Fancy something a bit more musical? Well, you can enjoy a combo of classical music and cutout animation in Camille Saint-Saëns' The Carnival of the Animals. And for Dutch 80s and 90s kids looking for a throwback we've got Han Peekel in the house for a special on Wordt Vervolgd.

Whatever floats your boat, tickles your pickle, creams your cheese, or peels your banana, our KLIK Specials have something for everybody.

CARTOON NETWORK - ADVENTURE TIME ^{75 MIN}

WED 18 OCT, 18:45, EYE 2

This year we've got a double whammy of everyone's favorite kooky post-apocalyptic duo. The award-winning Adventure Time and the escapades of Finn and Jake will be front and center during two separate screenings.

Our first special will include a screening of four episodes and a Q&A with a member of the creative team. So if you've got any burning questions on the Land of Ooo, Princess Bubblegum, or the Enchiridion, well, we don't know if they'll answer them all, but you can always try!

Cartoon Network will also be giving away cool goodies.

ADVENTURE TIME: ISLANDS MARATHON ^{90 MIN}

WED 18 OCT, 20:30, EYE 2

For our second Adventure Time special we'll have a back-to-back screening of the eight-part miniseries Adventure Time: Islands.

Part of the show's eight and most recent season, the miniseries sees Finn, Jake, BMO, and Susan Strong go on a maritime voyage and finally uncover the mystery surrounding the final fate of the human race. Episode four also helped snag Adventure Time's seventh Emmy award last month!

Even if you've already seen it, you don't want to miss experiencing this epic marathon on the big screen.

IN THIS CORNER OF THE WORLD

135 MIN

THU 19 OCT, 20:30, EYE 1

Calling this Japanese film a war drama would not do it justice. We prefer to describe it as a dreamy tale of courage and imagination under fire.

It follows Suzu, a young woman with a love of daydreaming, who in 1944 moves to a small town just outside Hiroshima. The first part is her coming of age, while the second shows the toll of war and constant bombings.

Directed by Sunao Katabuchi, the film painstakingly recreates pre-war Hiroshima through interviews with survivors and thousands of photographs, capturing provincial life in Japan before the world changed forever.

REVOLTING RHYMES

60 MIN

WED 18 OCT, 22:30, EYE 2

FRI 20 OCT, 17:15, EYE 2

SAT 21 OCT, 10:00, EYE 1 (+ Q&A)

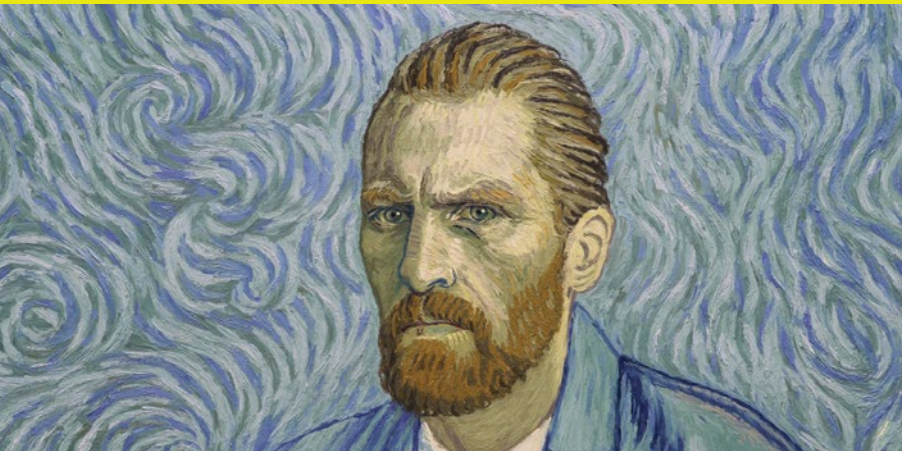

Because who doesn't love a fairy tale with a sinister twist? Based on the popular children's book by Roald Dahl, Revolting Rhymes by directors Jakob Schuh, Jan Lachauer, and co-director Bin-Han To blends the classic tales of Little Red Riding Hood, Snow White, The Three Little Pigs, Jack and the Beanstalk, and Cinderella while spicing them up at the same time.

This brilliant two-part film will have your eyes glued to the screen. Still not convinced? Well how about we add a big bad wolf as our narrator who has all the answers and a story of his own.

LOVING VINCENT AVANT-PREMIERE 90 MIN

FRI 20 OCT, 20:45, EYE 1

Animation has no boundaries. That's why we love seeing where it can go, like with Loving Vincent - the world's first ever fully painted feature film.

Every one of its 65,000 frames is a hand-painted oil painting. Let that sink in for a minute. Every frame is painted by hand. It was first shot as a live-action film and then hand-painted over by 125 professional oil painters.

This remarkable film tells the story of Vincent van Gogh's passionate and short life, and his mysterious death. Be sure to catch the pre-release - before it's out in theaters - during KLIK.

Loving Vincent was written and directed by Dorota Kobiela and Hugh Welchman, and produced by Poland's BreakThru Films and UK's Trademark Films.

MIDLIFE MINDFULNESS 120 MIN

FRI 20 OCT, 23:00, EYE 2

With the 10th Edition of KLIK, it's time for some much needed introspection. This year we're replacing the drunken chaotic debauchery of our past special Midnight Madness with Midlife Mindfulness, a contemplative journey to our inner selves with the help of meditative animation.

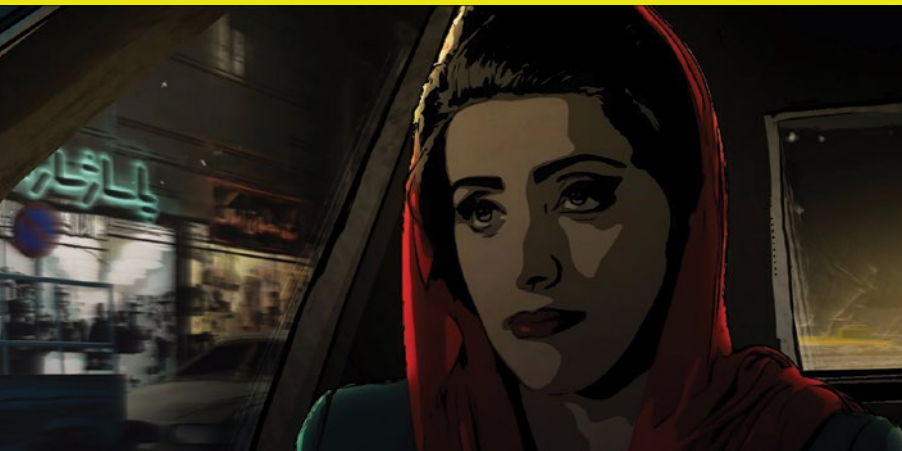

Join us on this spiritual journey to unlock your chakras, from your eyeholes to your badonkadonk. Afterwards you'll feel so cleansed, you'll wonder if you've had an epic ayahuasca session, except in our program the diarrhea, vomiting, and uncontrollable sobbing are optional. We look forward to seeing you there. Animasté!

TEHRAN TABOO

100 MIN

THU 19 OCT, 18:45, EYE 2

Though serious taboos in Iran's oppressive theocratic state, sex, drugs, and prostitution are still a part of everyday life, inspiring the directorial debut of German-Iranian filmmaker Ali Soozandeh.

The story is about three women and one man struggling to survive in modern-day Iran - one character, a prostitute, is even forced to give a blowjob to a truck driver with her child in the backseat.

Aside from shock value and sharp social commentary, the film has the look of a moving graphic novel, combining rotoscoping and motion capture of live actors. A film with unforgiving sensibilities and unique visuals, Tehran Taboo makes for an unforgettable cinematic experience.

ZOMBILLENIUM

90 MIN

SAT 21 OCT, 22:45, EYE 1

SUN 22 OCT, 20:00, EYE 1

Welcome to Zombillenium – the Halloween theme park where real monsters hide in plain sight.

Directed by Arthur de Pins and Alexis Ducord, the film follows Hector, a safety inspector who gets turned into a monster and tries to flee the park to get back to his human daughter.

Along the way, we meet fascinating characters like

Gretchen, a gothic skateboarding witch whose father is the owner of the park and the Devil himself, and Steven, a chiseled Twilight-parodying vampire who is also arrogant AF. If you're up for a ghoulish animated feast, this one's for you!

KLIK! KLIK! BOOM! - 10 YEAR CELEBRATION

SAT 21 OCT, 23:00, LOCATION TBA
FREE ENTRY

All work and no play is definitely not KLIK's style. So dust off your dancing shoes, because tonight it's on. Our annual soiree is the night all filmmakers, festivalgoers, and friends party like it's going out of style, and this year we'll be celebrating our tenth anniversary.

Where will this shindig be, you ask? It's a secret, but we like you so we'll let you know at the

CAMILLE SAINT-SAËNS' THE CARNIVAL OF THE ANIMALS ^{30 MIN}

FRI 20 OCT, 17:15, EYE 1
SUN 22 OCT, 10:00, EYE 2

Classical music and cutout animation are a match made in musical heaven in this brilliant 20-minute film by Aria Covamonas. A series of funny and surreal animated stories are paired with the fourteen movements of French composer Camille Saint-Saëns' musical suite The Carnival of the Animals.

Each movement stars a different animal, from the regal lion to the slowest tortoise.

EUROPEAN DELIGHTS (PRESENTED BY EUNIC) 90 MIN

SUN 22 OCT, 17:45, EYE 2

Oh yes, we've got a smorgasbord of European goodies and we're not talking chocolates and cheese (although those are good too!).

European Delights is filled with tasty animated shorts from all over the continent, such as Ivan's need, a psychedelic Swiss creation about a young man's obsession with kneading dough, and the hilarious Hungarian film Symphony No. 42 exploring the absurd relationship between humans and nature.

In partnership with the European Union National Institutes for Culture we've lined up amazing shorts from 12 countries including the Netherlands, Poland, Lithuania, Czech Republic, Italy, Spain, Belgium, Austria, Hungary, Cyprus, Ireland and Switzerland.

WORDT VERVOLGD WITH HAN PEEKEL ^{90 MIN}

SUN OCT 22, 16:00, EYE 1
IN DUTCH

WORDT VERVOLGD

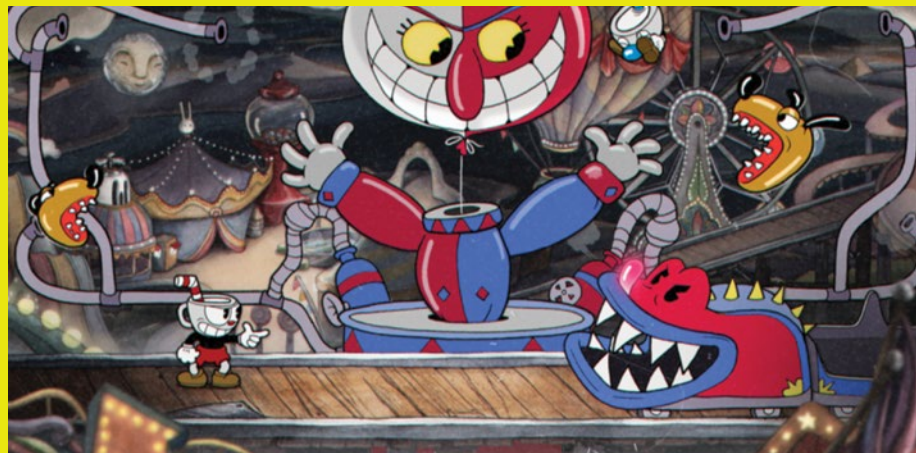

Han Peekel, presenter of the much loved Dutch television program Wordt Vervolgd about animated films and comics which aired in the 80s and 90s, will guide you through the history of his program and that of animation in general.

He'll be sharing his favorite memories of what happened behind the scenes on his show and he'll present three pieces of animation by his favorite animators. Afterwards there's time for questions, and pictures and autographs for the fans! This program will be in Dutch.

CONTINUOUS, EYE ARENA

Time to shoot some bad guys! In the EYE Arena you can play Cuphead, a run and gun video game released last month that's heavily influenced by 1930s cartoon characters like Betty Boop and Popeye. The visuals and audio were created with the same techniques of the era, such as hand drawn cel animation, watercolor backgrounds, and original jazz recordings.

Play as Cuphead or Mugman as you navigate strange worlds, acquire new weapons, learn super moves, and discover hidden secrets while you try to pay your debt back to the devil.

Game animator Jake Clark from Studio MDHR will also give an Up Close & Personal Masterclass during the festival.

KLIK INDUSTRY

For the last decade, KLIK strives to be the Miracle-Gro for the Dutch animation industry, ensuring that those young saplings flourish into thriving animation ecosystems. KLIK Industry is all about sharing knowledge, celebrating success stories, and bringing the animation community together.

Our Debutante Ball and Consultation Hours connect students and professionals across different fields and generations, while our Up Close & Personal Masterclasses give you the chance to go in-depth with animated pros.

Want to listen in on conversations with filmmakers from this year's competition? Then join the Filmmakers Talkshow with Hans Walther. Or interested in finding out what's happening in the Dutch animation scene? Then check out our new program, the NL Industry Yearbook.

WORLD DOMINATION AWARD

OPENING NIGHT, TUE 17 OCT
INVITATION ONLY

What are we going to do on opening night? Try to take over the world of course! Or rather, honor someone who already has. The KLIK World Domination Award celebrates an organization, studio, or individual that has helped Dutch animation take another big step towards ruling our solar system (at least as far as animation is concerned).

This is our biggest award and the fifth time we'll be crowning a winner. It's our way of saying thank you and a token of our belief that they'll go on to achieve even greater success in the very near future. Past winners include Michael Dudok de Wit and Bruno Felix.

CONSULTATION HOURS ^{300 MIN}

WED 18 OCT, 11:00, KLIK CAFÉ

Need some professional help? In these 20-minute one-on-one meetings you can work on your script with a script coach from 11:00 to 13:30 or learn from an expert on how to get your short started from 14:00 to 16:30.

Your KLIK ticket (Unlimited Pass or single ticket) is all you need. Register through www.klik.amsterdam before 17 October (18:00) to guarantee your spot.

DEBUTANTE BALL CLASS OF 2017 ^{45 MIN}

THU 19 OCT, 17:15, EYE 1
FREE ENTRY

Meet the class of 2017! Our annual Debutante Ball is where the newest generations of animators mingle with more established and experienced professionals.

and HKU will present their one-minute showreels during special screenings attended by folks already working in the industry.

Afterwards, it's all about getting a little tipsy while you network, with free drinks for all participants and attendees.

NL INDUSTRY YEARBOOK ^{180 MIN}

THU 19 OCT, 10:00 & 11:30 & 13:30, EYE 2
FREE ENTRY

This year we're introducing the NL Industry Yearbook: An afternoon of talks about six of the biggest projects that left their mark on the animation industry in the Netherlands.

Of course we'll be focusing on what the sector is all about: teamwork. What has been achieved by working together and how do people do it? There will be three blocks of two 15-minute presentations followed by half an hour of discussion. Feel free to join and dive into the Dutch animation industry. This program will be in Dutch (sorry internationals!).

UP CLOSE & PERSONAL MASTERCLASSES ^{120 MIN}

THU 19 OCT, 11:00, ROOM AT THE TOP
FRI 20 OCT, 11:00 & 14:30, ROOM AT THE TOP

SPECIAL TICKET
REQUIRED

This is your chance to go face to face with the very best in animation during our Up Close & Personal Masterclasses. This year, Disney's Daron Nefcy, creator of Star vs. the Forces of Evil, Jakob Schuh and Bin-Han To, director and co-director of Revolting Rhymes, and animator Jake Clark for video game Cuphead, will be leading two-hour interactive sessions. Keep an eye on our website, www.klik.amsterdam, or pass by the KLIK desk for more details.

In EYE's Room at the Top you can engage these industry masters about their work process, vision, and career along with a small and intimate audience of (aspiring) professionals. To make the most of their time we ask all participants to prepare a set of questions. Each session will focus on a specific theme.

FILMMAKERS TALKSHOW ^{75 MIN}

THU 19 OCT, 13:00
FRI 20 OCT, 13:00

SAT 21 OCT, 13:00, KLIK CAFÉ

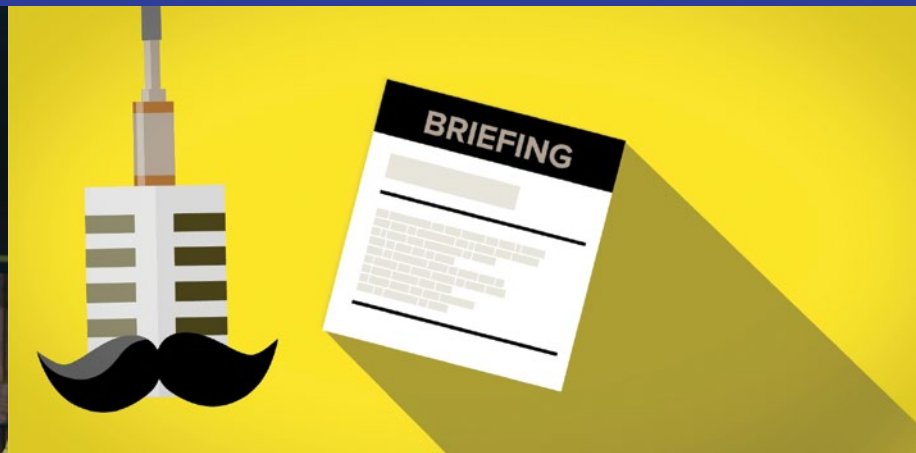

Move over Oprah! Our host with the most, Hans Walther will be serving up captivating conversations with international filmmakers featured in this year's program.

Grab a cup of coffee, get a chair, and get ready to listen to a fireside chat like no other. Check www.klik.amsterdam to find out at what time which filmmakers will be joining.

The interviews will also be recorded and posted on www.skwigly.co.uk.

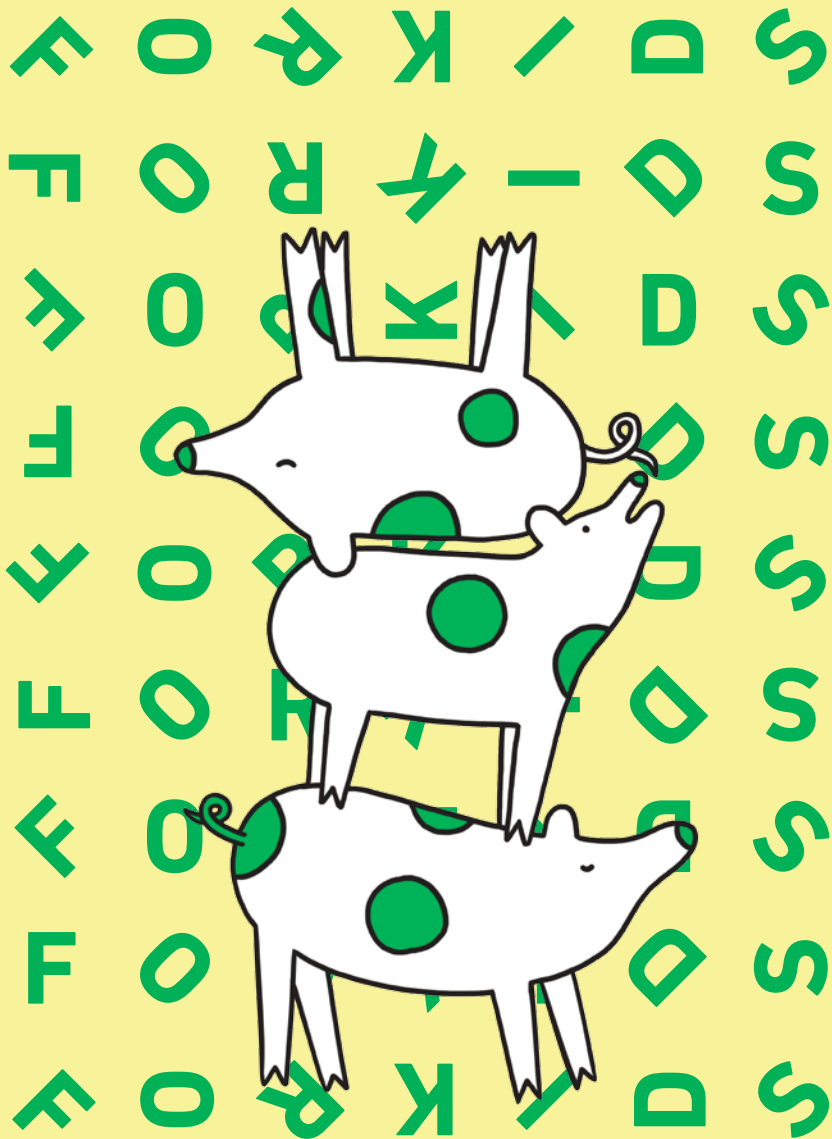

DEMO VOICE-OVER SCRIPTWRITING ^{60 MIN}

THU OCT 19, 16:00, ROOM AT THE TOP
REGISTRATION REQUIRED

One of the hardest things when writing a voiceover script is to write as you would speak. It's such a subtle difference that you might not realize it until you hear the voiceover. That's why Voicebooking.com will give a free demo on how to write a script that pulls your audience into your story.

The session with a veteran voice talent from the UK will let you experience the difference. Reserve your spot at Voicebooking.com/klik/demo.

KLIK FOR KIDS

So we like you adults and all, but the kids, they're the future. That's why KLIK has a special program just for them.

From the 1,975 films we received, we chose only the best and kid-friendliest to give the littler ones the feels and giggles they deserve. Our Animated Shorts for Kids are unforgettable collections of animated adventure, slapstick, and original stories you won't see on TV. Suitable for kids between 3 to 12 years, these films are without dialogue, so language is not a problem.

As a bonus, only the kids get to cast their vote for the Young Amsterdam Audience Award.

KIDS WORKSHOP: VOICE ACTING 90 MIN

SUN 22 OCT, 15:30, KLIK CAFÉ
FREE ENTRY

Watching animation is a whole lot of fun, but actually being in animation is even more awesome. On Sunday, we have a voice acting workshop just for kids by Voicebooking.com. They'll have professional recording equipment, a director, and voice talent with experience recording for Kung Fu Panda, SpongeBob SquarePants, and Pokémon.

The piece of animation that will be used has lots of different characters for the young ones to act out. So drop the kids off, while you sit back and enjoy a drink. The workshop is for children between the ages of 9-12 and will be in Dutch. Get there on time as there's limited space.

DISNEY SING ALONG ^{75 MIN}

SUN 22 OCT, 12:15, EYE 1
IN DUTCH

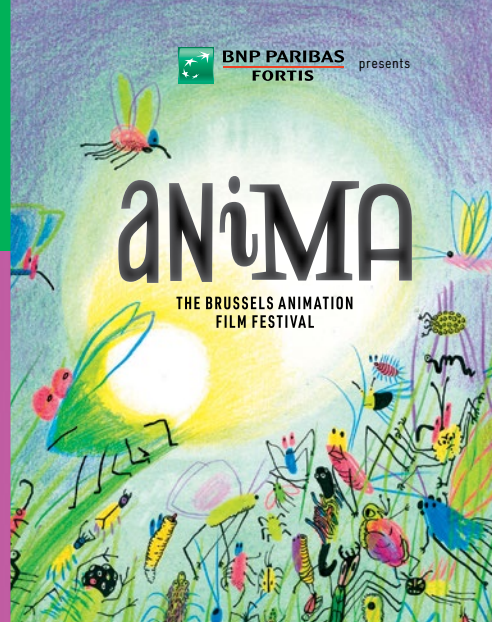

Yes, you heard right. We've got a live Disney Sing Along with popular vlogger Yvar de Groot and voice actress Fé van Kessel. So get those "Bare Necessities", remember to "Let it go", and come feel like you're part of the "Circle of Life" during this musical celebration.

With songs from Moana, Frozen, Jungle Book, The Lion King, and more, there's something for everyone to join in, and there'll be a warm welcome from fabulous cosplayers portraying Cruella de Vil, Tinker Bell, Anna and Rapunzel. The program and songs will be in Dutch, making this perfect for kiddies between 6 to 10. Don't worry, adults, or big kids, are more than welcome to join. Bonus points if you dress up like your favorite character.
