IMMERSIVE MEDIA

Monday 28 - Wednesday 30 March

Bibliotheek Neude (Utrecht)

Ready? Set. Immerse! Kaboom invites you to get lost in (post-)virtual worlds. Are we living inside the Matrix? What is real and what is virtual reality? But believe us: these immersive projects are very, very real. And virtual. Get lost in a mythical labyrinth, travel as a rain drop, fly with a flock of birds or follow the tragic life of an artist... It's all possible.

Scan this QR code and book your spot to experience VR!

GAMES

EYE wardrobe

Immerse yourself in exciting new games, including a fantasy platformer, a cottagecore adventure game, an action-rpg, a brawl platformer with an all-star Nickelodeon cast and so much more! All games are free-of-charge and available during EYE's opening hours.

EXHIBITIONS & INSTALLATIONS

Think Kaboom is all (and only) about film? Think again, because we have piled up some extraordinary exhibitions and installations. Attention: danger of drowning in enriching experiences.

Mannenmythen | Manly Myths

EYE Arena (Amsterdam)

Myths debunked! Max and his sister Tosca take a scalpel and seriously question some myths about men from the past and present. In this exhibition, ten persistent myths about men get a closer look. Masculinity cannot change? Yeah, right...

Koekeloerium

EYE Arena (Amsterdam)

Buro Rococo, a collective of illustrators Nino Maissouradze & Yoko Heiligers, invites you to observe your fellow man from absurd mobile shelters. And believe us, you've never seen your fellow human beings like this before. On the 2nd of April, Nino & Yoko will host a live interaction between their installation and you, the audience!

De Vleesvrije Stad | The City Without Meat

Wed. 30 March - Sun. 3 April 12:00 - 23:15 - OT301 (Amsterdam)

Question: how do we want to treat animals in the future? Imagine: in ten years' time, the Netherlands will have stopped eating meat altogether. With this vision in mind, illustrators and writers created a book about ten years and ten dilemmas. This exhibition showcases ten illustrative works included the book.

StoryScope

28-30 March 10:00 - 21:00 - Bibliotheek Neude (Utrecht)

31 March - 4 April 10:00 - 23:00 - EYE Arena (Amsterdam)

Creating stories is not only vital to our society, it's also just sheer fun! Discover the StoryScope: a computer, projector and theatre all in one. By moving wooden objects on a glass screen, the projected figures come to life. Come and play, and craft your own crazy stories.

SATELLITE EVENTS

Kaboom spreads the love for animation. And thus, more and more locations in Amsterdam & Utrecht are joining in. These satellite programs are definitely worth a visit.

Being Queer Together

Saturday 2 April - Supernova (Amsterdam)

Supernova's heart beats in the same rhythm as ours. That's why this inclusive, independent cinema is the ideal spot to present a collection of bold, powerful, sometimes painful, sometimes tender queer stories.

Artist in Residence | Tomm Moore

Wolfwalkers: Tuesday 29 March 19:00 - Pathé Rembrandt 2 (Utrecht)

Wolfwalkers: Thursday 31 March 19:00 - Ketelhuis (Amsterdam)

Artist in Focus: Saturday 2 April 17:00 - EYE 2 (Amsterdam)

Come and howl with the wolves, and a brilliant animator. An Oscar-nominated folkloristic tale set in Killkenny in 1650, Wolfwalkers is an absolute gem by Tomm Moore & Ross Stewart. Don't miss it! Cherry on top: Tomm Moore will be joining for live Q&As. Moore is also Kaboom's very first 'artist in residence' and is giving guest lectures in Dutch animation schools.

Meet The Voices

Thursday 31 March 19:00 - Boom Chicago (Amsterdam)

In honour of World Autism Appreciation Week, Kaboom and Interacting (Boom Chicago's theatre school for teenagers with autism) are collaborating for an event that voices our love for voice acting and raises awareness of autism. Dutch voice-actors will be performing live. Everybody's welcome to 'Meet the Voices'!

TALKS

"Are you talking to me?" It might just be celebrated Where is Anne Frank director and Artist in Focus Ari Folman who is talking to you. Or maybe it's artist in focus Chintis Lundgren, a master of quirky, absurdist animation. There's also a super interesting daily Filmmakers Talk and a panel on knowing your place in telling a story: Is It Our Story to Tell? And that's just the tip of the iceberg.

KABOOM CAFÉ

Thursday & Friday: open from 16:00 - Weekend: open from 10:00

The Kaboom Café at the 1st floor of EYE Filmmuseum is the ideal pitstop in between your screenings and activities to grab a drink (or two). But it's also a platform for talks and networking. Relax, and we'll do the rest!

COVID-19

Kaboom will follow up on government measures to prevent the spreading of Covid-19. At the moment of writing there are no other restrictions than wearing a facemask in public transport. Check the most up to date official measures on www.rijksoverheid.nl (Dutch) or www.government.nl (English)
