HOLLAND ANIMATION FILM FESTIVAL

Het programma THE PROGRAMME

In het Holland Animation Film Festival 2016 staan van woensdagmiddag 16 maart tot en met zondagavond 20 maart zo'n 140 voorstellingen geprogrammeerd met een ongelofelijke rijkdom aan films, talkshows, lezingen en een seminar.

Naast het Louis Hartlooper Complex, het kloppende hart van het festival, is CineMec Utrecht, 'de Sterrenkijker', een nieuwe state of the art locatie voor de filmvertoningen.

Bovendien presenteert het HAFF een internationaal programma met zes installaties, op het snijvlak van ruimtelijke beeldende kunst en animatiefilm. Een tentoonstelling in het Stadhuis is helemaal gewijd aan animatie uit de stad Utrecht, dat zich langzamerhand met recht Animatiehoofdstad kan noemen, met haar animatiestudio's, facilitaire bedrijven en kunstopleidingen. Ook de Tuinzaal van het Centraal Museum en de Oude Hortus en het Universiteitsmuseum zijn dit jaar weer voorzien van spraakmakende installaties.

Op zaterdag 19 maart is in de Nicolaïkerk de inmiddels befaamde KunstStripBeurs.

In het royale aanbod bieden de competities altijd een prima handreiking om een toonaangevende selectie van het internationale aanbod te zien. De verzamelprogramma's met korte films vormen een aangename afwisseling met de lange films.

Een opmerkelijke verrijking is de trend van historische gebeurtenissen en engagement in animatiefilms, ook documentaires worden steeds vaker met hulp van animatie gerealiseerd. Voorbeelden in het programma: Battle of Surabaya, 25 April, Cafard, NUTS!, Miss Hokusai, Un Día Vi 10.000 Elefantes en I Am Sun Mu.

Hoofdthema van deze editie is new directions: nieuwe talenten, nieuwe technieken, nieuwe presentatievormen, met eigenzinnige manieren om verhalen te vertellen. Met de nieuwste films, installaties, works in progress en een opmerkelijke tv-serie van Dave Cooper. HAFF kijkt nadrukkelijk vooruit, naar de makers van de toekomst, met onder meer een speciaal programma in samenwerking met de Tokyo University of Arts en de Tama Arts University uit Japan, met films van studenten tijdens hun opleiding en werk dat na voltooiing van hun studie is gerealiseerd.

Kijk op de website www.haff.nl. Daar staan allerlei suggesties voor routes van dag tot dag.

At the 2016 Holland Animation Film Festival, from Wednesday afternoon 16 March to Sunday night 20 March, some 140 programme items are scheduled, offering an amazing cornucopia of films, talkshows, readings and a seminar.

Apart from the Louis Hartlooper Complex, the festival's nerve centre, CineMec Utrecht, or 'de Sterrenkijker', is a new state-of-the-art location for film screenings.

In addition, HAFF presents an international programme of six installations, on the cutting edge of spatial art and animation cinema. An exhibition in City Hall is entirely devoted to animation from the city of Utrecht, which can by now justifiably call itself the Animation Capital, with its animation studios, general and technical support services and art schools. The 'Tuinzaal' of the Centraal Museum and the Oude Hortus and University Museum have also been fitted out with high-profile installations this year.

On Saturday 19 March, at the Nicolaï Church, the now famous KunstStripBeurs (Cartoon Art Fair) is held.

In the copious programme, the competition sections are always a great help to watch an outstanding selection from the international treasure trove. The compilation programmes of short films make for a nice change between longer films.

A notable enrichment is the trend of historical events and commitment in animation films; documentaries, too, are increasingly realised with the help of animation. Examples from the programme include: Battle of Surabaya, 25 April, Cafard, NUTS!, Miss Hokusai, Un Día Vi 10.000 Elefantes and I Am Sun Mu.

The main theme this edition is 'new directions': new talents, new techniques, new forms of presentation, with quirky ways of telling stories. Presenting the latest films, installations, works in progress and a striking TV series by Dave Cooper. HAFF expressly looks ahead, to the makers of the future, in a special programme in association with the Tokyo University of Arts and the Tama Arts University from Japan, featuring films by students made during training as well as work they realised after completing their studies.

Go to the website www.haff.nl. to find several suggestions for day-to-day routes.
